

Dolly On The Street & Kicker Pictures PRESENT

THE SUPER STONED

FILMMAKER'S STATEMENT

The Super Stoned, although a light hearted stoner comedy, is based on a very true story about a group of our friends who went to see a super hero blockbuster together. Other than getting successfully stoned, things went very very wrong. Each character in our little story is based on a fellow film student, or in some cases a few students merged into one character. We had a very thick hotbox session, some personal drama, and perhaps worst of all, we had that one very very very late friend. Who was going to be left stuck running out to meet her with her ticket after the movie started? Hotboxing quickly turned into Hot Potato as each of us schemed how we'd make sure to not be the one stuck holding the bag.

Inspired by our mutual love of marijuana, superheroes, and movies Brian and Tyler got together to cultivate this story into the overblown stoner romp you have before you today. We hope you enjoy watching this film as much as we enjoyed living it.

Sincerely,

Brian Hogan & Tyler Stirling

Co-Writer/Directors, The Super Stoned