

SKIP SCHOOL

you only get one shot in this life

LOG LINE:

Everyone has a first day of high school and everyone has a day that changes their life forever; sometimes those days can be one and the same.

SYNOPSIS:

Skip School is not your normal high school movie. This short follows the lives of four students and one substitute teacher as they try to survive their first day of high school. Mr. Littleton dutifully reports for work, even when he'd rather stay in bed with his pregnant fiancée. Orlando is balancing his goal to make Varsity Football and his need to protect his little sister, Virginia, starting her Freshmen year. Virginia's best friend Douglas, also a Freshmen, struggles with his plan to come out of the closet and gets no support from his alcoholic mom. Meanwhile, Orlando's girlfriend Sandy, also a senior, just wants her mom to trust her enough to drive the car. But it's dangerous out there; something today's high schoolers know all too well.
